of the participating company, is not acting as a broker-dealer and will not execute any sale on behalf of participants. Rather, Broadridge will forward requests to sell such shares to a broker-dealer appointed by Broadridge, including possibly a broker-dealer affiliated with Broadridge, who will execute the transaction. The broker-dealer will sell the shares on the open market pursuant to the terms of the controlling sales program document. The price per share for the shares sold will reflect transaction fees and brokerage commissions and the actual price will be determined pursuant to the sales program document. In general, sales are made at least once a week. Depending on the number of shares being sold and current trading volume in the shares, sales may be executed in multiple transactions and may be traded on more than one day. The selling price will not be known until the sale is complete. Broadridge will not be liable for any losses or liability incurred by participants arising from, related to, or in connection with the administration of the sales program or Broadridge's actions or non-actions with respect to the sales program, and participant shall indemnify and hold harmless Broadridge from all losses and liabilities incurred by Broadridge. If you choose to sell registered shares through the sales program, unlike a stock brokerage account, the timing, pricing, and manner of sales through the sales program will be subject to the provisions of the sales program and will be outside your control.
